Get Hooked on Fishing in Port Aransas on Mustang Island
Experience Deep Sea, Bay, Surf, Kayak, Pier, Wade and Fly Fishing

(Mustang Island/Port Aransas, TX) Mustang Island/Port Aransas is gearing up for the 2017 summer fishing season. Known as the “Fishing Capital of Texas”, Mustang Island/Port Aransas is a world-class fishing destination, providing the best in all areas of the sport.

Mustang Island/Port Aransas offers unlimited fishing options for anglers of all ages and skill levels. Deep sea fishing excursions, ranging from 5 – 56 hours, provide the Gulf of Mexico’s ultimate blue water experience. Bay fishing is outstanding in the waterways surrounding Mustang Island, where anglers can catch their limit by boat, kayak or wade fishing. Lighted, public piers offer 24/7 fishing, and anglers can surf fish along the 18 miles of wide, sandy beaches.

“We are so fortunate that our destination can offer a fishing experience for all ages and experience levels,” said Jeff Hentz, President and CEO of the Port Aransas & Mustang Island Chamber of Commerce and Tourism Bureau. “There is no better option than Port Aransas to bring your son or daughter to and learn the joy of fishing and have the opportunity to catch snapper, drum, trout or big game fish like marlin and kingfish.”

Fishing tournaments abound during the summer in Mustang Island/Port Aransas, ranging from kids to women only and billfish to redfish tournaments, with one nearly every weekend. Upcoming tournaments include the Texas CCA (Coastal Conservation Association) Take-A-Kid Fishing Tournament, June 2-3; Ladies Powder Puff Tournament, June 17; Hope Devlin Kids’ Tournament, June 30-July 1; and the 82nd Annual Deep Sea Roundup, the longest running fishing tournament on the Texas Gulf Coast, July 6-9.
